WEEK TWENTY-SIX

Next Week

Reading:

Letter Yy (ee-gree-eh-gah). Ya-ye-yi-yo-yu. Breaking words into syllables. Sight word review. Identifying characters in a story.

Math:

Numbers 1 to 100. Comparing sets with up to 20 objects. Identifying how many more or fewer items a set has when compared with another set.

Writing:

Writing about jobs.

Theme Time:

Math, math, and more math!

What We've Practiced This Week

Reading: Our focus letter this week was Qq and the syllables que and qui. These two syllables are tricky because the Uu is silent in the syllables. (They are pronounced kay and key). We took times this week to practice reading these syllables in words and remembering to keep the U silent. Besides our letter work, we learned to read the word gracias and practiced using it in sentences. We also read several stories about different jobs and discussed what the main idea of each story was.

Math: During math this week, we practiced comparing sets of objects with between 0 and 20 items. We learned how to compare the sets by matching the objects and by using a number train.

Writing: This week, students were assigned a small group and chose a job to research and write about. Monday and Tuesday were spent researching the job and brainstorming ideas that could be added to their very own informational books. Students worked together to write an introductory sentence for their book and began to add content, writing specific information about the job they had chosen. We hope to wrap up our books next week!

Theme Time: We spent our theme time this week completing St. Patrick's Day themed games and activities. We talked about leprechauns, pots of gold, and rainbows. We also discussed what we would do with a pot of gold if we found one!

Announcements and Reminders

Winnie-the-Pooh

We had a great time on Thursday when we attended the musical rendition of Winnie-the-Pooh in Caledonia! Students love the musical and had a great time seeing their favorite character come to life. ☺

The Great Kindness Challenge!

Next week all Bursley students will be participating in The Great Kindness Challenge! Although the challenge is something that will be completed during the school day and there is no need for you to return any papers throughout the week, there is a copy of the challenge in your child's Friday Folder today so that you know what we are working on here at school. When students complete an act of kindness at school, they will write their name on a slip of paper and enter their name in a prize drawing. Consider talking with your child each night to see which act of kindness they completed during the school day!

¡Hablamos español!

This week we continued to practice using more Spanish in class! We again talked about how important it is to practice speaking in Spanish if we want to learn to speak well. Next week we will continue to practice speaking ONLY in Spanish until snack time at 10:20. Be sure to ask your child how it is going and encourage him or her to continue speaking Spanish even when it is difficult!

Book It!

March is National Reading Month! It is a great time to spend extra time reading at home. Remember that the Book It! goal is to read with your child four to five times a week for at least 20 minutes. Keep reading!

Scholastic Book Orders

Remember that you can place an order online at any time using the activation code LJRY2. I will place the March order on the 27th.
